

The Annotated Bobblehead

Justice Louis D. Brandeis
Harvard edition

There are three differences between the standard Justice Brandeis bobblehead doll and the Harvard edition. First, his standard necktie is blue; the Harvard tie is crimson. Second, his Harvard-edition cargo includes not only two volumes of the United States Reports, but also the first volume of the original Green Bag – the one containing the article he wrote about legal education at his alma mater. Third, we did not make many of the Harvard edition: 300.
