

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Kiel Brennan-Marquez (Going Through the Motions, p. 381): I dedicate this essay to Bennett Sims, who first inspired me to take serious stock of the undead; and to James Montana, who persuaded me that formalism is not necessarily the absence of humanity.

Erwin Chemerinsky (Appearances Can Be Deceiving, p. 389): I am grateful to my research assistant, Fawn Bekam, for her excellent assistance on this article.

Brianne J. Gorod (A Year of Contradictions, p. 405): For their helpful comments and suggestions, I am grateful to Jeff Hauser and Kelly Landis. The views expressed are solely my own.
