Our speaker tonight, Daniel R. White, comes to us with the improbable reputation of being a lawyer-humorist. That is not to imply that we don’t find lawyers very funny. There is always Marty Ginsburg, and I also have in my pocket a list that the judges composed of the 10 funniest lawyers to argue before the D.C. Circuit last year.

Laurence Silberman

Proceedings of the Fifty-Second Judicial Conference of the District of Columbia Circuit,

140 F.R.D. 481, 534 (1992)

* We may find the seeds of a micro-symposium in here somewhere, if Professor Wexler doesn’t scoop them up first.
CONTENTS

SECOND SERIES • VOLUME 20, NUMBER 1 • AUTUMN 2016

EX ANTE

Our Mistakes ............................................................................................................. 1

Call for Papers: Goldman Micro-Symposium ......................................................... 2

TO THE BAG

Aníbal Sabater ................................................................................................................ 3

Bobblehead, Meet Broom Handle

ARTICLES

Femi Cadmus.............................................................................................................. 7

The Quintessential Law Library and Librarian in a Digital Era

Luther T. Munford ...................................................................................................... 13

Letter to a First-Year Law Student

George Rutherglen .................................................................................................... 19

Fisher II: Whose Burden, What Proof?

Douglas P. Woodlock ................................................................................................. 33

Doing God’s Work in the Courthouse
Contents

FROM THE BAG
Meagen K. Monahan .......................................................... 43
   The Green Book: Safely Navigating Jim Crow America
Victor H. Green ................................................................. 51
   The Negro Motorist Green Book (1938 edition)

MICRO-SYMPOSIUM:
RICHARD POSNER’S “WHAT IS OBVIOUSLY WRONG
WITH THE FEDERAL JUDICIARY”
Introduction ............................................................................ 83
Timothy A. Delaune .............................................................. 85
   An Immodest Proposal
Swift Edgar .............................................................................. 91
   In Defense of Ejusdem Generis
Jonathan Mermin ................................................................... 97
   On the Importance of Headings and Subheadings in Judicial Opinions
William Baude & Stephen E. Sachs .................................... 103
   Originalism’s Bite
Richard A. Posner & Eric J. Segall ...................................... 109
   Faux Originalism

Acknowledgments & Credits ............................................... 115