As a Democratic Member of Congress once said, “In the Senate, you can’t go to the bathroom without 60 votes.”

(statement of Sen. Feingold)

After receiving the unanimous vote of his cabinet ..., Lincoln announced: “The vote has been taken. Seven noes, one aye – the ayes have it.”

Meyer v. Bush, 981 F.2d 1288, 1297 n.9 (D.C. Cir. 1993)
citing Richard F. Fenno, Jr., The President's Cabinet 29 (1963))

At some point early in their clerkships, Brennan asked his clerks to name the most important rule in constitutional law. ... Brennan would reject each answer, in the end providing his own by holding up his hand with the fingers wide apart. This, he would say, is the most important rule in constitutional law.
