

To The Bag

Two More Errors

To the Bag:

I received today, on the eve of the first (and hopefully only) big snowstorm of the season, the 2006 Green Bag Almanac and am looking forward to a quiet day perusing its contents. I noticed the small ERRORS card tucked into the front cover and, upon review, doubt that I would have noticed these errors in the text if they hadn't been flagged for me. I couldn't help but notice, however, an ERROR on the ERRORS notice – I doubt the card was printed January 14, 2005 – once again proving that no good deed goes unpunished, and, in this case, no small error unpublished!

I love the Bag, and look forward to every issue, but couldn't help but notice the irony in this ERROR.
